NATIONAL PORTFOLIO DAYS
RSVP at: saic.edu/ug_npd
National Portfolio Days (NPD) take place from September to January in locations across North America, and SAIC participates in all of them. Representatives from SAIC provide 10-15 minute reviews of prospective students’ work and offer advice about preparing your portfolio for admission and merit scholarship consideration.

Attending a National Portfolio Day can be the first step in investigating art schools and early college programs, and a perfect way for prospective students to introduce themselves and their work to SAIC.
