3. CURRICULUM AND INSTRUCTION

3.2 Request for Approval to Submit MDTA Projects

The California State Department of Employment has determined that there is a need locally for five vocational training programs, and the Adult Division of the Santa Barbara Junior College District has been asked to set them up. These projects will be funded 90% by the Manpower Development and Training Act (MDTA) and 10% with local funds. The 10% local funding would be reflected by "Costs in Kind." The five projects are as follows:

- Nurse, Licensed Vocational
- Nurse's Aide/Orderly (medical services)
- Porter I
- Laborer/Nursery
- Machine Set-Up Operator

The deadline date for submitting these projects is May 31, 1968. The Superintendent recommends that approval be given for writing and submitting the projects. Dr. Bobgan will be present to answer questions.
