AGREEMENT

THIS AGREEMENT entered into this ______ day of September 1979, by and between the Regents of the University of California, hereinafter called Regents, and the ______ School District of ______, County, hereinafter called the District:

WITNESSETH

WHEREAS, pursuant to the provisions of Section 11006 of the Education Code, the governing board of any school district is authorized to enter into agreements with a state college, the University of California, or any other university or college accredited by the State Board of Education as a teacher education institution, to provide teaching experience through supervised teaching to students enrolled in teacher training curricula of such institutions; and

WHEREAS, any such agreement may provide for the payment in money or in services for the services rendered by the school district of an amount not to exceed the actual cost of the school district of the services rendered; and

WHEREAS, it has been determined between the parties hereto that the payments to be made to the District under this agreement do not exceed the actual cost to the District of the services rendered by the District;

NOW THEREFORE, it is mutually agreed between the parties hereto as follows:

I.

The District shall provide teaching experience through supervised teaching in schools and classes of the District for students of the University of California possessing valid preliminary certificates and/or internship credentials and assigned by the University of California to supervised teaching in schools or classes of the District as mutually agreed upon by the university supervisors and designated persons within the District. Such supervised teaching shall be provided in such schools or classes of the District, and under the direct supervision and instruction of such employees of the District as agreed upon by duly authorized representatives of the District and the University of California.

The District may, for good cause, refuse to accept for supervised teaching any student of the University of California assigned to supervised teaching in the District, and upon request of the District, made for good cause, the University of California shall terminate the assignment of any student of the University of California to supervised teaching in the District. "Supervised teaching" as used herein and elsewhere in this agreement means active participation in the duties and functions of classroom teaching under the direct supervision and instruction of employees of the District holding valid life diplomas or credentials issued by the Commission for Teacher Preparation and Licensing, other than emergency or provisional credentials, authorizing them to serve as a classroom teacher(s) in the schools or classes in which the supervised teaching is provided.

II.

Regents will pay the District for the performance by the District of all services required to be performed by the District under this agreement. The rate of payment is established subject to budgetary considerations in the operation of student teaching. The amount of payments* are assigned as follows:

Elementary ............... $25.00 Fall Semester (half-time)/
                             $40.00 Spring Semester (full-time)
Secondary................. $30.00 per student teaching semester assignment
Speech and Hearing....... $30.00 per student teaching semester assignment
Community College....... $30.00 per student teaching semester assignment
Secondary Reading....... $30.00 per reading coordinator per semester
In-House Coordinators... $100.00 for the year ($50.00 per semester)

In-House Coordinators at the elementary and secondary level will receive $100.00 for the school year ($50.00 per semester) plus $25.00 for each student teacher assigned each semester to the school. (In instances where a school has two In-House Coordinators, each coordinator will receive $100 for the entire year and divide the $25.00 per student amount per assignment between them.)

*In certain instances, special payments may be made to public school teachers who participate in experimental programs or who contribute services above and beyond those ordinarily performed by public school supervising teachers. The amounts paid will be determined through arrangements with the teachers involved.

The number of quarter units of supervised teaching to be provided for each student of the University of California, Santa Barbara, assigned to supervised teaching under this agreement shall be determined by the University of California, Santa Barbara.

The total amount of time spent in the public schools student teaching during the Fall and Spring Semesters will be determined on the basis of program structure and may vary according to the student teaching situation.

III.

The assignment of a student of the University of California to supervised teaching in the District shall be deemed to be effective for the purposes of this agreement as of the date the student presents to the proper authorities of the District the assignment card or other document given him by the University of California effecting such assignment.
In the event the assignment of a student of the University of California to supervised teaching is terminated by the University of California for any reason, the District shall receive payment on account of such student pro-rated according to time spent in supervised teaching.

IV.

Within a reasonable time following the close of the Fall Semester and Spring Semester of the local school year the District shall submit an invoice, in triplicate, to the Regents for payment, at the rate provided herein, for all student teaching during the Fall and Spring Semesters provided by the District under and in accordance with this Agreement during said school year. The District shall attach to the invoice a certificate, in triplicate, executed by a duly authorized representative of the District certifying that the District expended, or became obligated to expend, in providing such supervised teaching, an amount not less than the amount of such invoice from monies made available for such purpose by, or pursuant to, the laws of the State.

V.

The term of this agreement shall commence on the 1st day of September, 1979, and terminate on the 31st day of August, 1980.

VI.

Notwithstanding anything herein contained to the contrary, this agreement may be terminated and the provisions of this agreement may be altered, changed, or amended, by mutual consent of the parties hereto.

VII.

Notwithstanding any other provision of this agreement, Regents shall not be obligated by this agreement to pay the District any amount in excess of the amount specified in this agreement.
