August 13, 1979

TO: Community College District Superintendents/Chancellors
FROM: Ronald Myron, Executive Director
RE: 1979 ELECTION — CCCT BOARD OF DIRECTORS

We appreciate your help in conducting the 79-80 election for ten (10) regular vacancies on the CCCT Board of Directors and one (1) Student Director vacancy.

If you have any questions regarding the election process, please call the CCCT Office.

Your board may cast a maximum of ten (10) votes for the Regular Director vacancies, and your Student Trustee may cast one (1) vote for the Student Director vacancy. Only one vote may be cast for an individual candidate — cumulative voting is not permitted.

We ask that you return your district's official ballots in the ballot envelope provided. The ballot envelope should be sealed, verified, and placed in the larger envelope for mailing to CCCT.

The deadlines are noted on the attached "Official Ballot Data" information sheet.

Thank you.

Date: July 9, 1979
What do you see as the major issues and activities that should be considered by CCCT in the next two years? (50 words or less)

1. Community Colleges must remain open-door for all persons age 18 and older. Tuition and fees do not help in the training and education of all citizens; 2. Non-credit courses must be funded; 3. There must be created state funding for capital improvements and maintenance, child care, community services and aid to the handicapped.

What do you feel you can contribute in these areas? (50 words or less)

Having served eight (8) years on a local Board of Trustees of an urban community college district, as well as participating in state-wide community college activities, it is my judgment that I can serve effectively in preserving the mission of community colleges and the structure of community college governance.

What do you see as the major issues and activities that should be considered by CCCT in the next two years? (50 words or less)

The major issue facing the CCCT in the next two years is the question of finances and local vs State control of the colleges.

What do you feel you can contribute in these areas? (50 words or less)

My many years of management background and the very many close relationships with key politicians in Sacramento.

Current important issues include finance, legislation, local control, governance, collective bargaining, vocational education, non-credit programs.

CCCT should provide forceful legislative activity, a good information network, orientation for new trustees, consultant services for all trustee workshops, conferences, prepare Trustee Papers on pertinent issues and distribute the "Courier," a letter concerning current events.

What do you feel you can contribute in these areas? (50 words or less)

My experience in the various activities listed has provided me with a broad understanding of public education, finance and legislation, and a particular enthusiasm for the community college segment.

This, plus my previous experience while employed in personnel and management positions, furnishes me with a helpful framework for CCCT Board responsibilities.

What do you see as the major issues and activities that should be considered by CCCT in the next two years? (50 words or less)

CCCT must offer LEADERSHIP, rather than reaction, for the Legislature, Board of Governors, and California Postsecondary Education Commission. We must heed and act on the concerns of our Trustee members. We must continue to provide our members with the informational and legislative assistance they need to govern.

What do you feel you can contribute in these areas? (50 words or less)

CCCT has now become of age as a COMMUNITY COLLEGE Association of Trustees with a highly qualified staff and expert consultants. CCCT can now speak for its members with a STRONG voice. To accomplish our goals, I will work to increase the involvement of our individual members in association affairs.

What do you see as the major issues and activities that should be considered by CCCT in the next two years? (50 words or less)

Since the concept of responsible trusteeship demands increasing examination and dialogue, I believe CCCT must continue to provide the direction as well as the forum. However, the most pressing problem facing trustees is the never-ending State and Federal regulatory legislation and involvement in Community College affairs. The entire community college community must work together to ensure that local control is not further eroded.

What do you feel you can contribute in these areas? (50 words or less)

I believe that CCCT is the ideal catalyst for mobilizing trustee involvement and promoting trustee views. I believe that my experience with Community College associations will help meet these goals.

What do you see as the major issues and activities that should be considered by CCCT in the next two years? (50 words or less)

1. Much local control has already been lost so that it becomes increasingly critical to preserve the unique contribution of community colleges to local education.

2. Become increasingly proactive as opposed to reactive to legislative mandate which seems to keep us steadily on the defensive rather than the offensive in solving local needs.

What do you feel you can contribute in these areas? (50 words or less)

After a quarter century of working in local, county, state government, I have been able to develop expertise in dealing with governmental entities and officials above local boards and have experience in coordination and leadership in cooperative group activities.

1. Continue to effectively represent the interest of member boards in Sacramento.

2. Develop an effective public information program to inform Californians of the value of community college education.

3. Develop new information and educational programs to inform trustees of member boards of their responsibilities and duties.

What do you feel you can contribute in these areas? (50 words or less)

As immediate past president of CCCT, I am in a position to assist the current officers to achieve the goals of CCCT as determined by the Board of Directors. I also would like to use the knowledge gained last year to increase the resources of CCCT so that new educational programs for trustees can be implemented.

What do you see as the major issues and activities that should be considered by CCCT in the next two years? (50 words or less)

Regarding community colleges, I believe in working for a change in the 50% Law because of all of our part-time teachers. I also believe in a concentrated effort to work out the problems with the Government on the Veterans' Program and to work with the handicapped to be able to bring them into the main stream. Also, a method to circumvent the loss of income due to Proposition 13.

What do you feel you can contribute in these areas? (50 words or less)

I am semi-retired and am working part-time and have sufficient time to devote to working on the aforementioned problems and would be able to serve on any committees I might be asked to. I feel that my years of service on various school boards would give me a certain degree of expertise.

What do you see as the major issues and activities that should be considered by CCCT in the next two years? (50 words or less)

A long-term formula for community college financing will follow the second bailout.
By providing the financing, state government will be tempted to mandate uniform programs.
Local boards, each in their own unique situation, can more ably decide how best to serve their constituents. In the conflict, sure to occur, CCCT must lead, support, and coordinate these local efforts.

What do you feel you can contribute in these areas? (50 words or less)

I would like to continue among the leaders in coordinating and supporting local district boards in the next two crucial years.

THE MAJOR CONCERN FOR CCCT IN THE NEXT TWO YEARS IS TO PUT INTO LAW A LONG TERM FINANCE BILL FOR THE CALIFORNIA COMMUNITY COLLEGES. CAREFUL CONSIDERATION MUST BE GIVEN TO THE DETAILS OF THE LEGISLATION TO PROTECT ALL DISTRICTS IN THE STATE. OTHER LEGISLATION MUST BE SOUGHT TO RELIEVE CONSTRAINTS DEALING WITH FINANCE, SUCH AS THE 50% LAW, THE CREDIT-NON-CREDIT CONTROVERSY AND EQUITY CONCERNS AND COLLECTIVE BARGAINING. AS MUCH LOCAL CONTROL MUST BE MAINTAINED AS POSSIBLE IN ALL LEGISLATION.

What do you feel you can contribute in these areas? (50 words or less)

MY COMMUNITY IS LEADING A FIGHT AGAINST THE STATE FOR LOCAL CONTROL, EVEN TO THE POINT OF FORMING A NEW COUNTY. I AM DIRECTLY INVOLVED IN THIS ENDEAVOR AND WOULD COORDINATE EFFORT IN THIS DIRECTION. I ALSO FEEL A STRONG ORIENTATION PROGRAM FOR NEW TRUSTEES MUST BE DEVELOPED BY CCCT AND WOULD WORK TO ACHIEVE THAT. MY EXPERIENCE GAINED AS LIAISON TO THE BOARD OF GOVERNORS THIS PAST YEAR WOULD HELP THE CCCT VOICE HAVE MORE IMPACT ON THAT BODY.

What do you see as the major issues and activities that should be considered by CCCT in the next two years? (50 words or less)

-- Upgrading educational attitudes to reflect today's needs;
-- Continuing impact of Proposition 13 on finances of community college districts and subsequent control shift from local government to state government;
-- Collective bargaining and its impact on local control of schools.

What do you feel you can contribute in these areas? (50 words or less)

-- By bringing a managerial and technical approach to related problems in community college education;
-- By continually emphasizing the fact that colleges are for students and should reflect community needs i.e. increasing age of students and new career needs;
-- By striving for long-range financial planning in education to help meet future career needs.

What do you see as the major issues and activities that should be considered by CCCT in the next two years? (50 words or less)

The major issues and activities of CCCT will revolve around the preservation of local control among governing boards, which is the genius of the community college movement...its ability to immediately respond to local concerns and community needs. Articulation of the community support for lifelong learning so that the media and public has an awareness of the true nature of education opportunities afforded.

What do you feel you can contribute in these areas? (50 words or less)

I have had experience on the local, state, and national level which should make me able to recognize and deal with the critical problems community colleges face in the era of economic reappraisal.

Date: June 17, 1979
What do you see as the major issues and activities that should be considered by CCCT in the next two years? (50 words or less)

1. Move the newly incorporated CCCT organization to a new level of maturity, stability and effectiveness.
2. Develop political positions on major issues for CCCT use with state governing agencies and the Legislative Network.
3. Support legislative efforts to develop and establish a long-term financial plan combined with strong local control.
4. Modify SB 160 (Rodd) on collective bargaining in order to avoid strikes, dismissal of faculty and loss of programs.
5. Find ways to maintain collegiality through Academic Senates.
6. Develop public support for comprehensive community colleges.

What do you feel you can contribute in these areas? (50 words or less)

With several years experience on a variety of local and state educational committees, including local curriculum committees, I have acquired an understanding of the values of California's community colleges and a knowledge of the major problems they face at the present time.

Since the passage of Proposition 13 and collective bargaining laws, solutions to these problems need to be found through coordinated and concerted efforts with state government agencies and the Legislature if we are to preserve the elements of local control.

A background in politics and government combined with recent experience doing research for national, state and local political candidates have given me an interest in the political and legislative processes. These activities have put me in touch with our local representatives. Fully retired, I have the time to contribute to CCCT activities if elected.

What do you see as the major issues and activities that should be considered by CCCT in the next two years? (50 words or less)

- The restoration to local autonomy of the control of the community college's finances.
- To remove the C.C.'s from the grasp of various members of the state legislature.
- The issuance of a firm chart, upon which to base the C.C.'s activities.
- To firmly separate the C.C.'s from the other educational levels of instruction.

What do you feel you can contribute in these areas? (50 words or less)

I have worked on several of the above projects and am willing to continue further. I would like to further develop the relationships between the CCCT and the CC JCA for the common good of the educational institutions. I can serve as a member of the Board of Directors of the CC JCA.
