Governance and decision-making within the District is detailed in the publication entitled, Resource Guide to Governance and Decision-Making. The purpose of the Resource Guide is to describe the governance and decision-making structures and processes by which the District ensures that there are opportunities for meaningful collaboration and engagement. This document is regularly reviewed and updated to incorporate changes in structures, processes, groups, and other modifications. Additionally, the efficacy of the governance and decision-making structures and processes are regularly assessed and this process is described within the Resource Guide.
