

AP 5400      ASSOCIATED STUDENT GOVERNMENT

Reference:

Education Code Section 76060

The Associated Students organization known as the Associated Student Government of Santa Barbara City College shall:

- Elect officers and members; and
- Keep an account of its meetings, expenditures, authorizations, and policies established.

A simple majority (50% + 1) of the elected voting members of the Associated Student Government of Santa Barbara City College shall constitute a quorum.

The Associated Student Government is granted permission to use such District facilities, including office space, meeting and project spaces, and spaces for approved operations, as may be authorized subject to the determination by the District of the availability and suitability of such facilities for purposes specified by the Associated Student Government. Unless otherwise determined by the Superintendent/President or designee, such District facilities include, but are not necessarily limited to:

- Associated Student Government conference room in the Campus Center;
- Associated Student Government office and storage space in the Campus Center;
- Associated Student Government club room in the Campus Center; and
- such other space(s) as may be determined from time to time due to construction and construction-related maintenance, infrastructure, or other requirements as determined by the Superintendent/President or designee.
