Hello First Year SBCC Student!

Can you believe you have been a college student now for 2 whole weeks?! We know that you have faced some challenges in finding your way around campus, balancing your schedule, managing your time, meeting new friends and crashing classes. You've worked hard! Congratulations! We are so delighted that you are here. The drop date has passed so and the lines have dwindled so………

NOW is the time to meet with an Academic Counselor!

Come to the Student Services Building, First Floor SS120. Check in at the Counseling Front Desk. A counselor will work with you one-on-one to put together a long range Student Education Plan!

Things get really busy next month so now's the time to come by! (For fully online students, please give us a call and we will work with you at a distance. 805-730-4085)

Workshops are starting next week…check out the links below and mark your calendar:

- The Learning Skills workshops include building skills in test taking, managing stress and math confidence. Most workshops are available for check out at the LRC and include the informational handouts
- The Writing Center workshops help you develop skills and strategies that can be applied to writing in other classes such as editing, researching and citation.
- Career Center workshops provide coaching in resume writing, interviewing and job search skills. Don’t miss the "How I Made It" speakers series!

Use these workshop resources to support your success!

We encourage you to set high expectations for your academic success, get involved in school activities and get to know your professors. You are now a valued member of the student body and we have great hopes for you! Keep up the great work!
STAY IN THE KNOW
