FAFSA QUESTION 23 VERIFICATION

Additional information and/or documentation is needed to verify information from your 2010-2011 Free Application for Federal Student Aid. You did not provide an answer to “Drug Conviction Eligibility”. We can not determine your eligibility for federal student aid without this information. Complete this worksheet and return to your Financial Aid Office for processing. Please mark one of the following options. See page 2 for determining your eligibility status.

Check one box:

☐ 1. Means you may be eligible to receive federal student financial aid for the 2010-2011 award year.

   Your eligibility date is before July 1, 2010.

☐ 2. Means you may become eligible for federal student aid during the 2010-2011 award year. You may become eligible earlier in the award year by completing an acceptable drug rehabilitation program.

   Your eligibility date is July 1, 2010 through June 30, 2011.

☐ 3. Means you are not eligible for federal student financial aid for the 2010-2011 award year unless, you complete an acceptable drug rehabilitation program.

   Your eligibility date is after June 30, 2011.

Warning: If you purposely give false or misleading information on this worksheet, you may be fined, sentenced to jail, or both.
