

Associate Degree Nursing Program Application Process and Timeline

Fall semester entry:

Application period: January 15 through February 15 (if the end date falls on a weekend, the application period will extend to the next business day).

Application review and evaluation period: Through end of March.

Accepted applicants notified of Fall semester acceptance: First week of April.

Applicants will be notified of application status via their pipeline email account, which is created upon application to the college. It is accessed via the student's pipeline account, and can be set up to have emails forwarded to a personal email address.

Mandatory Orientation meeting: Admitted students will be notified after acceptance.

Spring semester entry:

Application period: June 15 through July 15 (if the end date falls on a weekend, the application period will extend to the next business day).

Application review and evaluation period: Through end of August.

Accepted applicants notified of Spring semester acceptance: First week of September.

Applicants will be notified of application status via their pipeline email account, which is created upon application to the college. It is accessed via the student's pipeline account, and can be set up to have emails forwarded to a personal email address.

Mandatory Orientation meeting: Admitted students will be notified after acceptance.