2.0 PUBLIC FORUM – Allison Curtis relayed Dr. Gaskin’s message to students:

Dear SBCC Students,

My name is Lori Gaskin and I have the privilege of serving as the president of SBCC. On behalf of our entire campus, I extend to you a hearty welcome to the spring semester. All of us at SBCC maintain an unwavering commitment to providing you a learning environment of the highest caliber. We have no doubt that you will meet the academic goals you have set for yourself here at SBCC and we take great pride in being a part of your educational journey.

As an SBCC student you also hold an important position as a citizen of the greater SBCC community comprised of your classrooms, our campus, common spaces, neighborhoods, your residential units, and our community’s work and recreational environments. It is with genuine care that I urge you to be mindful of the impact your behaviors, actions, and decisions in and outside the classroom have on others, on the college, on your peers, on the larger community, and on yourself. Think about what kind of member of our campus and greater community you want to be. Your decisions, behaviors, and actions determine how you regard our community and how you wish to be regarded by it. And through your choices, you control that outcome.

Here’s to a great semester – one that fuels your mind and spirit with intellectual inquiry and discovery.

With appreciation, Lori Gaskin
