Ruby Limon – Officer Report: On Thursday, April 14, I attended an award event that Luria Library held, as our library was the national winner in the community college category for the Association of College and Research Library's 2011. This was an Excellence in Academic Libraries Award. The library was awarded with $3,000. 1/3 of the amount received was spent on the water fountain that is outside library. If you have not noticed it, it is a fountain designed to fill your water bottles.
