First Day – A Focus on Communications!

“If only I were the new SBCC President, I would...”

Dear New Friends,

Today is my fourth day on the job as the new Superintendent/President of Santa Barbara City College. Before mentioning anything else, I want to thank you all for making my first few days such a wonderful experience. Everyone has been gracious and openhearted beyond anything I ever could have imagined. It didn't take me long to realize that this is the “SBCC way,” and it's one of the reasons this is such a wonderful place. Thank you!

From time to time, I will ask for your anonymous feedback on topics. Currently, I am hoping you'll share your thoughts with me related to the question: “If only I were the new SBCC President, I would...” The goal of this is to give you an opportunity to share your thoughts about the college. I want to know what you think and truly hope to hear from you. Here is a link to the survey.

Thanks again for the warm welcome, and I hope to see you soon!
