

Pam has been the Theatre Manager for SBCC since 1986. Prior to that she was the Business Manager and Box Office Supervisor at the Lobero Theatre for 5 years. Originally from La Jolla, she graduated from UCSB and stayed in Santa Barbara where she met her husband working at the Theatre. They have one son who attended SBCC and then graduated from Cal State University Channel Islands and currently works in Goleta. Outside of work, Pam tap dances and sings and is interested in vintage collectibles and antiques.